Dear Mr. Driscoll:

Pursuant to our recent conversation regarding the claim submitted in behalf of the widow and the various children of Mr. [redacted], I am forwarding herewith one copy of Form C. A. 2. It is my understanding that proof of the widow's dependency at time of death will be developed by your own investigation. As far as we can determine, the widow's present residence is the [redacted] Apartments.

At the time of his death, Mr. [redacted]'s rate of pay was $4,850.00, and there was no provision for subsistence or grant of quarters to be added to this figure for purposes of computation of the benefits payable under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act.

25X1A

This is also to serve as notification of the fact that Mr. [redacted] was in fact employed by this Agency and was acting in the performance of his duties at the time of his death on 13 April 1950.

In addition to the Form C.A. 2, I am forwarding an additional paper I have just received which may be a duplicate of one you already have.
